

Dear Sirs,
NAB's petition 04-160 appears to be a blatant attempt to stifle competition by blocking the ability of XM and other satellite radio broadcasters from airing information that has value to listeners like me who pay for the service.

I strongly reccomend that the FCC reject this petition and allow fair marketplace competition to play out.

Respectfully,

Brian Otis